

IREAD-3:

House Enrolled Act (HEA) 1367, Good Cause Exemptions & Participation

House Enrolled Act (HEA) 1367, also known as Public Law 109 in 2010, requires the evaluation of reading skills for students who are in third grade beginning in the spring of 2012. This legislation was created to ensure that all students can read proficiently at the end of grade three. In response to HEA 1367, educators from across the state worked with the Indiana Department of Education to develop a test blueprint and to review test questions that have now become the Indiana Reading Evaluation And Determination (IREAD-3) Assessment.

The intent of HEA 1367 is to ensure every student has the opportunity for future success through literacy. The results will have a positive effect on our entire state as the need for remedial education in middle and high school is reduced and dropout rates and juvenile delinquency are lowered. In addition, HEA 1367 will help Indiana develop the highly skilled workforce needed for a strong economy.

Good Cause Exemptions were included in HEA 1367 to allow for flexibility in determining access to grade four curriculum. These Good Cause Exemptions may be given to students who do not pass IREAD-3 and who fit one of the following criteria:

1. Students who have previously been retained two times prior to promotion to grade four (In other words, students can only be retained a maximum of two times in grades K-3 combined.).
2. Students with disabilities whose case conference committee has determined that promotion is appropriate.
3. English Learners (ELs) whose Individual Learning Plan (ILP) committee has determined that promotion is appropriate.
